Press Release

Aqua Vista Hotels returns to World Trade Market

Aqua Vista Hotels, one of the leading hotel management companies in the south-eastern Mediterranean, will be returning once again to the World Travel Market trade show in London from 6 - 8 November 2017 to present its services to the public and to discuss new ventures.

The group will be at the show to talk about its achievements over the past decade and to promote its business activities, as well as to share with interested parties the benefits of possible collaborations. Visitors can learn more about the many success stories that Aqua Vista Hotels has to tell, such as the speed launch of Acqua Vatos Paros, which was renovated in a record 90 days and opened to full occupancy in its first month. Representatives will be available to explain details of the business model used by the Group, which has brought recognition by bodies such as Expedia, who recently presented the company with another prestigious award in the category of 'Best Room Nights Growth' for one of the units it was handling.

When it comes to numbers, Aqua Vista Hotels manages over 30 venues and has a total headcount of 340+. It secures 81,000+ room nights, 30,000 bookings and 8,000+ transfers p.a. With an 86% occupancy rate, a Yoy Rev PAR growth of 38%, it also has a TripAdvisor rating of 93+ and scores 4.5 on Facebook.

Business Development Manager Mrs Sofia Matzourani commented on the upcoming show; “Being responsible for the management of a large collection of boutique hotels, exclusive resorts and villas in Greece, Aqua Vista Hotels is always keen to showcase its extensive portfolio. Our philosophy of providing unique guest experiences is something that we look forward to sharing with visitors to the WTM and any potential partners.”

Interested parties intending to visit the show are welcome to arrange an appointment to meet with the group by sending an e.mail to pr@aquavistahotels.com
