Aqua Vista Hotels proud sponsor of three significant charity sporting events

Aqua Vista Hotels is proud to be a sponsor of three annual charity events; the 7th Day Run that takes place in June in Athens and the 'Santorini Experience' and 'Red Bull Art of Motion', which take place in October in Santorini.

Aqua Vista Hotels was thrilled to be supporting the 7th Day Run sport event, which took place in Athens on Sunday, 12 June 2016. The non-profit making run was another great success, with more people registering than in previous years. Now in its seventh year, the Day Run is a major 10 km charity running event aiming to unite all its participants in a common purpose of promoting the ethos of fair play and the Greek athletic culture. Emphasising humanitarian values, it aids various charitable institutions and Aqua Vista Hotels was proud to contribute in its role as exhibitor.

The 'Red Bull Art of Motion' takes place in Santorini on 1st of October and is already in its sixth consecutive year. It is renowned as being the ultimate free running competition, where skilful competitors from all over the world gather to present their amazing performances above the rooftops of the whitewashed Santorinean houses. The who's who of free running now see the event as an annual tradition, where they can show their best moves amidst the spectacular Cycladic landscape. Renowned athletes who have developed their skills through such events and also new talent looking for a chance to live this unique experience gather at Santorini in order to witness this exciting spectacle.

The 'Santorini Experience' event, which takes place for the 2nd consecutive year, is the first sports tourism event to be held under the auspices of the Greek National Tourism Organization and the Hellenic Swimming Federation, from 7th - 9th of October. This year's programme includes outdoor activities such as open-water swimming and running trails. Aqua Vista Hotels is extremely happy to be one of the event's sponsors, in which cultural diversity, youth entertainment, fair play and a healthy lifestyle are promoted.
