Aqua Vista Hotels brings art to the forefront once again at Aqua Gallery

Aqua Vista Hotels continues to support the work of contemporary artists and introduced to the public the stimulating new exhibition entitled 'THINK OF ME', on Saturday 26 August at the Aqua Gallery in the Art Hotel, Santorini. The evening was attended by a large number of guests who had the opportunity to view the unique collection of works by 25 contributing Greek artists and a wonderful night was enjoyed by all who attended.

Executives of Aqua Vista Hotels were joined by art lovers, local celebrities and visitors to the island who were eager to admire the new collection, which has been organised by Aqua Vista Hotels in collaboration with #Rest@rt Contemporary Art Platform under the artistic direction of Kelly Athanasiadou. Managed by Dimitris Lazaros and with the contribution of the art historian Konstantinos Vafiadis, the group exhibition will be on show in the spacious, open-air lobby of the Art Hotel on a 24 hour basis until 4 October.

Aqua Vista Hotels is very pleased to be able to present to hotel residents and visitors yet another exciting collection of modern works, which this time focuses on personal identity, the overcoming of the 'Ego' through art and an insight into the dimensions of thought. The wonderful Aqua Gallery of the Art Hotel provides the perfect space in which to host such an exhibition and the success of the opening night ensures that it will prove to be extremely popular.

Speaking on behalf of Aqua Vista Hotels, Mrs Sofia Matzourani, Business Development Manager commented; "This is the third exhibition to take place in the Aqua Gallery of the Art Hotel so far and it seems that the venue is becoming a favourite destination for lovers of art and culture, something which Aqua Vista Hotels is extremely proud of. Not only do we support any initiative that encourages new ways of expression, but it is our aim at Aqua Vista Hotels to enrich the guest experience in any way that we can."
