

AQUA VISTA HOTELS

Press Release

Aqua Vista Hotels honoured once again at Tourism Awards

Aqua Vista Hotels spent a celebratory evening at the highly regarded Tourism Awards 2019 ceremony on Tuesday 9 April. Executives and experts from across the industry were at the event, which recognises the best practice and exemplary contributions of those involved in Greek Tourism. Participating in this distinguished occasion for a third consecutive year, Aqua Vista Hotels was delighted to receive the Silver award in the category for Hotel Development, Management & Consulting.

This is the third accolade that the Group has won in this class and the second time that it has been the recipient of the Silver award. Receiving a commendation in this field is particularly significant to Aqua Vista Hotels as it goes to the heart of the company's successful model of hospitality concepts which it develops and applies. The successive recognition of the Group's approach affirms the high standards it maintains and its commitment to creating and developing profitable hospitality units.

As the ceremony concluded, Mrs. Sofia Matzourani, Business Development Manager of Aqua Vista Hotels, stated: “Attending the Tourism Awards is always an important occasion for us. It is particularly gratifying to receive a distinction in this category for our high-quality approach to developing and managing unique hotels. The fact that all of our efforts have been recognised in this way by our industry peers is an honour. Coming together to acknowledge the achievements of the sector is crucial to its continued growth and certainly reinforces the Group's dedication to continue on the path to future successes.”
